

Danica Dawn Harris just wanted to have a good night out to celebrate getting a job. But one drink turns to two, and two to four... she wakes up with scattered memories of karaoke, dancing, and a very familiar face in her mind: Jackson Carmichael- bad boy extraordinaire who gave her one magical night four years ago and broke her heart by disappearing the next day. Surely it must have been all that tequila that made her think some stranger was him? But it turns out the bad boy is back, and hes reformed. When Dawn shows up for her first day, she discovers that shes going to take care of Jacksons son. Unable to quit her job, she stays on, and soon discovers a whole new side of him shes never seen before. Can she resist having her heart broken once more? Or will Dawn decide to join this billionaires family, for the next nine months and beyond? This book is a standalone story with a Happily Ever After.
